Alejandro Rios

Austin TX

956-529-6849

alx.rios91@gmail.com

https://www.github.com/arios91

https://www.alex-rios.me

Summary

Software Engineer based in Austin with three years of experience in designing, developing, testing, and maintaining Java enterprise applications. Proficient in creating business applications using Java as well as front end development using JavaScript frameworks such as React and Angular along with Node.js and Express.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Computer Science                    Overall GPA: 3.23

University of Texas Rio Grande Valley                              Edinburg, TX

Class of December 2015

Experience

Software Engineer                                            March 2019 – Current

Conduent                                                            Austin, TX

- Tasked with providing support and resolving any issues in Struts backend of medical record system.
- Responsible for migrating legacy Struts project to modern React framework.
- Design and create REST API to be used alongside React system.
- Write unite and functional tests for React application.

Application Developer                                        May 2016 – March 2019

Hamer Enterprises                                                  McAllen, TX

- Provide ongoing development and maintenance for Java payment and billing system software sold by company.
- Responsible for redesigning and updating older projects to be responsive and mobile-friendly for a smooth user experience.
- Ensure Java projects are up to date with all requirements needed to comply with strict ADA regulations.
- Responsible for designing and developing an administrator permissions system using Java which is now used in multiple company projects.
- Provide technical support for customers using payment and billing systems.
- Create and maintain required SQL database tables for web applications.

Technical Skills

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Java | JavaScript | React |
| JSF | Angular | MongoDB |
| SQL | Node.js | Heroku |
| HTML/CSS | Express | IBM Db2 |
| PrimeFaces | Firebase | IBM WebSphere |